This symbol reminds Christians of the Last Supper and represents the body and blood of Christ.

This is a symbol of sacrifice and reminds Christians of the ultimate sacrifice Jesus made when he gave his life to save the people.

This is a symbol of Jesus coming into a world of darkness by the way people were living in sin. He brought light into the world.

This is a symbol of peace and hope. It is particularly used during baptisms and Pentecost.

This reminds people of how God wants people to live their lives and how they should follow his Word.
